BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

GLOBES (Gay, Lesbian or Bisexual Employees and Supporters) is a diverse organization of faculty, staff, graduate students and administrators whose mission is to advocate for, develop and nurture UGA's LGBTQ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer) communities. According to their website the organization "strives to educate, to improve campus climate, and to foster progressive change as we visibly work for social justice, equity and LGBTQ rights at UGA and beyond."

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Includes recordings from WGUA and WNGC, Laramie Project interviews, 4th GLOBES Lecture, and White Disabled Talent (Greg Walloch's one-man show that addresses stereotypes).
