Image not found or type unknown

Swainsboro "Our Home Town" film collection (tf-swain)

ONLINE RECORD: HTTPS://BMAC.LIBS.UGA.EDU/INDEX.PHP/DETAIL/COLLECTIONS/176

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE
"In the age of the automobile, Swainsboro, the [Emanuel] county seat, has been called the 'Crossroads of the South' for its location at the intersection of U.S. highways 1 and 80. In 1822 the state legislature named it 'Swainsborough' in recognition of Stephen Swain, the state senator who introduced the bill for the county's creation in 1812. The town's name was changed to Paris at its incorporation on February 18, 1854, but three years later reverted to its current name, Swainsboro."--"Emanuel County" from the New Georgia Encyclopedia, http://www.georgiaencyclopedia.org/ (Viewed February 8, 2010)

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE
The collection consists of an "Our Hometown" type of town film, made in 1947 by Sol Landsman and Arthur Loevin. The film depicts the people and businesses of Swainsboro, Georgia.

EXTENT OF COLLECTION
[2?] film reels : sd., b&w ; 35 mm.

Collection Contents

Swainsboro "Our Home Town" film collection (2 records)

[tf-swain_0001]	Our Home Town, Swainsboro, Ga
[tf-swain_0002]	Our Home Town, Swainsboro, Ga